MORE ABOUT CITY CHARTER AMENDMENT

Dr. Ferguson Calls Attention of Voters to Election Tomorrow and Gives Reasons Why Amendment Should Carry.

Mr. Editor:

In order to avoid misunderstanding of the amendment to the city charter which is to be voted on tomorrow, Saturday, Dec. 29, and to assist in the passage of wise legislation to encourage high official ideals and to furnish wise counsel and guidance, I am prompted to ask further space in The Sentinel and kindness of the public in reference to a subject of such importance to the taxpayers.

The purposes of the amendment are to promote and protect the interests of the city, to reduce the cost of operating the city's business, to procure the enactment of better regulations governing the control of the marshal and recorder and to dispense with the cost of a street commissioner and treasurer. The amendment has for its basic object to have the marshal on the streets and the recorder in the office all hours during the day. This is a most important part of the change.

It would be difficult to suggest a reason why the proposed amendment to the charter should not be made. Many reasons could be advanced why it is necessary.

Men, let me again ask you to support the amendment. The ladies, I am sure, will do the nice and right thing as usual.

Please pardon me for this further reference in print to this matter.

Wishing all a happy and prosperous New Year, I am,

Respectfully,

(Signed) Wm. P. Ferguson

EASTER-TALIAFERRO

At eight o'clock on the night of Christmas Day, Miss Lillian Easter, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Easter, was united in marriage to Mr. Edwin Loving Taliaferro, of Enid, Rev. J. A. Countiss officiating. The ceremony which was performed at his residence on College Avenue. The couple had announced their engagement several weeks ago but the exact date of the wedding was not announced. Their many friends were unaware of the event until the next morning shortly before they caught the fast train for New Orleans where they are spending their honeymoon.

Mr. Taliaferro is a member of one of the most prominent families of Tallahatchie county. He received his education at the Mississippi A. & M. College at Starkville and since leaving school has been looking after extensive farming interests near Enid. He is well known in Grenada where he has often visited friends and all who know him regard with the highest esteem.

His bride is one of Grenada's most popular young women. She is highly cultured and possesses a most amiable and pleasing disposition. She is well versed in all the graces and arts essential to the good wife and homemaker and her husband should consider himself fortunate in having won her hand in marriage.

The young couple will be at home to their friends at Enid.

The Sentinel extends congratulations and best wishes for a long life of marital bliss.

Another Aged Negro Inhabitant

Dan Melton, Born Oct. 18, 1825, Has Resided in Grenada County Whole Life.

Another old negro, a man by the name of Dan Melton, called at The Sentinel office a few days ago and said that he saw where this paper wanted to learn who was the oldest inhabitant in the county. Dan says that he was born on October 18, 1825, seven miles southwest of Grenada in the Sweet Home neighborhood where he now resides. He belonged to Mr. Isom Melton and served during the civil war in the Confederate army with his young master. The close of the war found them at Lookout Mountain, in Tennessee, and as soon as possible they returned home.

Dan has been married only once and is now separated from his wife who is still living. He is the father of eight children, four of whom are still living. He is very feeble but is able to come to town and get about quite often.

His 98 years do not seem to weigh heavily on him and indications are that he will live for many years longer.

So far, he is the oldest negro man that The Sentinel has been able to locate. This paper would be glad to interview some older ones and, if possible, would be glad to get in touch with the oldest white inhabitants.

BEAUTIFUL CHRISTMAS SERVICE AT ALL SAINTS CHURCH

Religious services were conducted Christmas morning at the Episcopal church in Grenada by the Rector, Rev. R. W. Emerson. This was the only public worship in Grenada. The services were unusually well attended. The rendition of the offertory, "Holy Night," by the Junior choir was beautiful indeed and could but serve to carry the mind of the thoughtful and meditative one to the Judean hills nineteen hundred and twenty-three years ago, when the angels of heaven brought the music from their celestial abode to earth to welcome the Babe in Bethlehem, whose coming to earth set a new standard and made possible new things for the sons of daughters of men. A tenderness of heart for this Babe was quickened and visions of His earthy career mirrored before the congregation, and the real meaning of Christmas and how God would have it observed was bright in review.

The sermon by the minister was highly appropriate and evinced an earnestness and a comprehension of the goodness and the love and the sacrifice of the only begotten of God worthy of the day and the occasion. The discourse was such as made men and women think, and it means a great deal in this rushing period of the world when one succeeds in getting any great number of people to think about any serious thing at one time.

At the communion table a surprisingly large number representing the congregations of the different churches of the town presented themselves to partake of the bread and the wine representing the body and the blood of Jesus.

Many present remarked on the seriousness as well as the beauty of the service and one very thoughtful person present phoned this office that it was highly to Grenada's credit that so many men were present and that so many of them partook of the Holy Sacrament.

When men and women wait on the Lord in an edifice set apart for His worship, they can but be carried out of an atmosphere common to the world. Their minds are lifted from mundane things and directed towards things towards which they would not otherwise aspire. Dr. Emerson is to be congratulated on the fine Christmas service at his church.

BISHOP GREEN AT ALL SAINTS SUNDAY.

The Rt. Rev. William Mercer Green, bishop coadjutor of the Diocese of Mississippi, will be at All Saints Episcopal Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of administering the Rite of Confirmation on those who are prepared. He will also preach.

The beautiful music, rendered by the choir on Christmas morning, will be repeated. Everybody welcome. Be sure and come.

Robert W. Emerson,
Rector.

Have Christmas Tree for Negroes

White Citizens Join with Colored Brethren in Providing Cheer for Colored Children.

On Monday night, Christmas Eve, the negro children of Grenada were made to feel that Old Santa had really remembered them. A large Christmas tree was erected in the auditorium of the negro school building and was covered with presents for every colored child living in Grenada. After a splendid musical program arranged and rendered by the colored people, Prof. W. W. Blackburn, head of the colored schools, proceeded to give out the presents.

The gifts were made possible by contributions from the white citizens and the colored citizens, too, and the list of all the children was made up from the class rolls of the colored schools and was augmented by the assistance of the colored pastors of the town who made up a list of all children who were not in school.

The tree was an excellent testimony of the fine spirit existing between the negroes and the whites of the town and The Sentinel hopes and feels sure that nothing will happen at any time to mar this relationship.

"SUE DEAR" PLEASES ALL WHO SAW IT.

"Sue Dear," the musical comedy which was presented to theatregoers in Grenada and vicinity at the Grenada Opera House Wednesday night received the hearty approval of all who saw it. It was by far one of the best musical shows that has ever come to Grenada. There was not a dull line nor a dragging moment in the entire play and the attention of the audience was held throughout. It would be a hard task to select just what number was the most pleasing but the "Foolishment" quartette, composed of Jay Elwood, George Thom, John Hendricks and James Reilly was not the least of them. They responded to encore after encore and each response elicited a generous round of applause. The chorus had all that is necessary to assist in putting a musical comedy across; they had youth, beauty, shape and they were graceful indeed.

Grenada was fortunate to get to see a show in the class of "Sue Dear" without having to go to the city.

SING CHRISTMAS CAROLS

One of the many beautiful features of the Christmas that has just passed was the singing of Christmas Carols by the young people of the church choir in Grenada, who visited all the sick people and the shut-ins and sang the carols to them on Christmas Eve, thus serving to make them happier and to bring to them a realization of just what the celebration of Christmas Day means to the Christian world.

Those who were visited appreciated the thoughtfulness and the beautiful sentiment manifested and the holiday season was considerably brightened for those who were unable to be out and about.

NEGRO SHOT TO DEATH BY UNKNOWN MEN.

William Hardeman, Jr., aged 49, a negro preacher, was shot to death at his home about three miles east of Elliott station Wednesday night between nine and ten o'clock by a party of unknown white men, who gave as their reason for the killing, so evidence presented before the coroner's jury showed, that the negro had some two or three weeks ago made sundry insulting remarks to a lady, Mrs. S. M. Neal, at Elliott. It seems that Hardeman owed an amount to Mrs. Neal, who is running the store formerly operated by her husband who was killed last summer by an Illinois Central fast train at the station crossing at Elliott, for various and sundry items and she had sent him word several times to come and settle. When he did come to her store, it is said that he was very impudent in his remarks to her.

According to the stories told by the dead negro's wife and his brother, both of whom witnessed the killing, Wednesday night about nine o'clock a party of men came to the door and asked assistance in having their car pulled out of a mudhole. They gained entrance to the house and after a few minutes, discovered Hardeman who had become frightened and had hid himself, and shot him to death, the bullets piercing his brain and his body.

It was evidently not the intention of the party to take the negro's life for one of its members left a shotgun, a twenty-gauge pump, at the house in the hurry of leaving after the shots were fired.

ONLY FOUR PAGES THIS WEEK

The Sentinel is offering no apology to its readers this week for the smallness of the paper. Printers, like everyone else, have to take a holiday once in a while, hence the paper is going to subscribers this week with only half its usual number of pages. Had it not been for the legal notices, The Sentinel force would have taken a full week's holiday.

Former Pastor Writes Fine Letter

Rev. J. R. Cunningham Sends Christmas Greetings to Presbyterian Congregation.

Editor Sentinel: The children of the Presbyterian Sunday School gave a splendid entertainment Sunday night. We had a full house and it was my intention to read the following letter from our beloved former pastor to the congregation but in the hurry and interest of the occasion, I simply forgot it and with many apologies to Mr. Cunningham, I ask the favor that you will give this letter a place in your paper this week and oblige, Yours truly,

(Signed) J. W. Young,
Gainesville, Florida.
December 17th, 1923.

To the Grenada Presbyterian Church,

Grenada, Miss.

"My dear Friends: The stress of my work here makes it almost impossible for me to find the time to send to you individuals greeting this Christmas, as I should enjoy doing. I am taking this means of expressing my love and good wishes to you at this Christmas season. I think a day never passes without many thoughts concerning you, and a prayer to God that He will bless and guide you in the locating of a pastor.

"I can say to you as Paul said to his good friends in Philippi 'I thank my God upon every remembrance of you. Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now; being confident of this very thing that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ, even as it is meet for me to think this of you all because I have you in my heart.' In a new prayer list formed since coming here one of my daily supplications is that God will guide you and supply Grenada and Bethel with a faithful minister.

"We miss you all more than we can tell you and very often our memories and conversation carry us back to those happy days with you in the Master's work there. We did not know how strong were the ties that bound us to you until we had to sever them.

"Our work here is opening up very encouragingly. Fifty new members have been received into the Church in the last three months, the congregations are splendid, the 'Men of the Church' have been organized and are starting in with much interest, the students are even more vitally interested in the activities of the Church than we had hoped. We have not yet been able to secure an assistant. It is very difficult to locate the type of man we want. We appreciate and need a continued interest in your prayers.

"Please accept this letter in a very personal way, as Mrs. Cunningham's and my own expression of love and good wishes at this Christmas Season. May it be a happy one for each of you, and may the New Year be filled with blessings for you all.

"Faithfully yours,"
"J. R. CUNNINGHAM"

MRS. H. J. THIEL PASSES AWAY

Mrs. H. J. Thiel died last Sunday evening at seven o'clock at her home at Brown's Mill, near Hesperway, after an illness extending over a period of some months. During her long suffering she had not complained but had borne up wonderfully well and had never lost her confidence in an all-knowing Providence. She was ready for the end and was prepared to face the heavenly Judge.

Mrs. Thiel was born near London, England, August 8, 1875. When she was eight years of age her parents came to this country, locating in Houston, Texas. Mrs. Thiel came to Grenada with her husband, who is the manager of Geo. C. Brown & Co.'s mill near Hesperway, when the mill started operation there and had endeared herself to many friends here by her kindness, patience and by her gentle and sweet disposition. She had early in life united with the Baptist church and was one of its faithful members.

The services were conducted at 2:30 o'clock on the afternoon of Christmas Day from the First Baptist Church by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Farr, after which interment was had at Odd Fellows Cemetery.

Besides her husband and two children, Mrs. Thiel is survived by her father and one sister, both of whom live in Houston, Texas. Her sister, Mrs. Ethel Salter, was here for the funeral.

The Sentinel extends sincere sympathy to the grieving loved ones.

BEAT 4 FOR SEPARATE ROAD DISTRICT

The election held last Friday in District 4 of Grenada County to determine whether or not a separate road district should be formed of District 4 resulted solidly in favor of the separate district, so this paper is advised. It was said that the votes had not been counted and would not be until Thursday, Dec. 27, but it was generally known that there was no opposition to the separation.

Grenada Spends Quiet Christmas

Very Little Noise and Day Soberly Celebrated. No Arrests Made for Drunkenness as in Days Gone By.

Christmas in Grenada brought joy and gladness to many hearts. The day was beautifully observed. A real Christmas spirit seemed to pervade the town. There have been Christmas-masses here when there was more noise. There have been Christmas in Grenada when numbers of men forgot the significance of the day and instead of making any sacrifice to the Babe born in a manger, they gave themselves over to the imaginary God, Bacchus. But if Bacchus had any victims or over-zealous devotees that day they did not show. There was not a single arrest, in passing it might be observed in the days of whiskey and the loon scores were drunk and inquired the attention of several additional men on the police force. There are some men who will assert that "there is as much whiskey drunk today as ever" the worst feature about it is that it is mean whiskey, whiskey that is. It might also be observed in connection that the saloon people, the whiskey interests, are responsible for the tightness of the prohibition laws of the present time.

One could but feel on Christmas day that he was glad he was living; glad that his home was in the United States; glad that he was a citizen of Mississippi and of the town of Grenada. Hearts were glad. There were home-comings and family re-unions that brought back many pleasant memories. There were home-comings that created new purposes and noble aspirations that will last through the coming year and that will bring forth fruits of righteousness which will last through the centuries and be gathered up by the angels of heaven.

Religious services were conducted at but one of the churches of the town, the Episcopal, but there was an unusually large congregation there and an exceptionally large number of men.

Good order seems to have pervaded the whole County. Perhaps after all the short crops and the strained financial condition of the country may have served to turn the thoughts of the people during the Christmas period towards the better things of life and made them at least for a little while forget automobiles, "going somewhere" and the making of a dollar. It was truly a glorious Christmas in Grenada.

A FINE BASKET OF VEGETABLES

A Sentinel representative saw one day last week a basket of the finest vegetables that he has ever had the pleasure of seeing. There were carrots, cauliflower, lettuce, onions, cabbage, mustard, beets, - all raised right here in Grenada by one of the town's best citizens, Mr. H. C. Whitaker. The vegetables showed that they had had the proper care and attention to make them as fine as possible and they were that one could desire. Mr. Whitaker raises vegetables in a small way but their excellence enables him to realize a nice sum from their sale each year.

CROWD WITNESSES GOLD DISTRIBUTION

Many Here for Distribution of Last Five Hundred Dollars in Gold Last Monday. Just a Few of the Gifts Have Been Claimed. Expected that Many Additional Numbers Will Have to Be Announced.

One of the largest crowds that has ever witnessed a similar event in Grenada was here for the last distribution of five hundred dollars in gold last Monday afternoon. This was the final of four like distributions extended over a period of twelve months and was participated in by twenty-eight Grenada business concerns who felt that it was a fitting way to show their appreciation to the trade of the business given them during the year.

There were twenty-five awards to be made and since the numbers have been announced only a few have come forward to claim the amounts they were entitled to. It is expected by the committee that it will have to announce additional numbers from time to time until the last dollar has been given away and it would be advisable for those who hold tickets to keep them until The Sentinel states that all has been claimed.

The numbers announced Monday and the amounts each is entitled to are as follows:

679202, $100;
525601, $50;
724340, 458121, 809469, 839521, 977599, 781205, 248939, 995248, and 206815, $25 each;
050598, 951422, 463284, 999782, 462647, 052451, 392614, 506344, 522160, 238694 and 635823, $10 each;
026766, 989789 and 033713, $5 each.

INCOME TAX IN NUTSHELL

Who? Single persons who had net income of $1,000 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more, and married couples who had net income of $2,000 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more must file returns.

When? The filing period is from January 1 to March 15, 1924.

Where? Collector of internal revenue for the district in which the person lives or has his principal place of business.

How? Instructions on Form 1040A and Form 1040; also the law and regulations.

What? Four per cent normal tax on the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the personal exemption and credits for dependents. Eight per cent normal tax on balance of net income. Surplus from 1 per cent to 50 per cent on net incomes over $6,000 for the year 1923.

Tips for Taxpayers
No. 1.

January 1, 1924, marks the beginning of the period for filing income-tax returns for the year 1923. The period ends at midnight of March, 15, 1924. Heavy penalties are provided by the revenue act for failure or willful refusal to make a return and pay the tax on time.

Form 1040A, heretofore used for reporting net income of $5,000 and less, from whatever source derived, has been revised in the interests of the largest class of taxpayers—wage earners and salaried persons. Reduced from six pages to a single sheet, Form 1040A is to be used for reporting net income of $5,000 and less derived chiefly from salaries and wages. Persons any part of whose income is derived from a business or profession, farming, sale of property or rent, though the amount is $5,000 or less, will be required to use the larger form, 1040. The use of Form 1040 is required also in all cases where the net income was in excess of $5,000, regardless of whether from salary, business, profession, or other taxable sources.

It being impossible to determine at this time which form is desired, copies of both forms will be sent taxpayers who filed individual returns for the year 1922, and may be obtained also at the offices of collectors of internal revenue and branch offices upon written request.

Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:00, Mrs. W. P. Wilkins entertained in her gracious manner for her sister, Mrs. C. A. Beatty, who is her guest for the holidays. The guests were welcomed at the door by little Misses Agnes Trusty and Mary Patton Wilkins. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. R. C. Trusty, Mrs. C. K. Bailey, Mrs. Frank Hayes and Miss Jane Young. In the dining room Mrs. W. B. Hoffa and Mrs. G. W. Eatan, in a most charming manner, presided at the tea table, while Misses Elizabeth Calhoun, Elizabeth Jones, Lillian Easter, and Helen Duncan Wilkins served delicious sandwiches, cakes and candies.

NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS

The caption of this article has been said and written so many times by the people of the world that we fear that it is generally uttered without thinking anything about what it really signifies. The one who utters these words should mean that his heart beats in unison with all the noblest impulses of the one whom he greets and that he is ready to lend all the aid and encouragement that the Christian religion demands to make the New Year one of sweetest experiences.

Before another issue of The Sentinel is printed, the year 1923 will have run its course and a new year ushered in to take its place.

What a wise provision of Providence that we have a stopping time and a starting time. It dawns more and more upon the thinking mind as the days pass that our Creator made no mistakes.

Whatever has gone wrong in 1923, is the fault of man and not of God. If greed and avarice and envy and covetousness have caused almost a moral and a spiritual earthquake in 1923, it is no fault of our Maker, but is because man has refused to obey his Maker's law.

But in spite of the turbid conditions which are visualized before us in the daily press day after day, let us not forget that a festered place on the body gets more attention than all other parts of the body until it is cured, and that the agencies for good are on the battle lines and that they have the promises of God that His cause shall triumph.

The year 1923 is rich in lessons for mankind. Its seemingly unusual vicissitudes are but sign posts by which the unerring finger of God points to certain results if certain rules of conduct or actions are persisted in. The matter of choice of action is with man. The year just closing can claim more outstanding leaders, more men who have achieved distinction in worldly fame, standing up for the cause of Christ than ever before. There are more secular newspapers carrying the messages of the gospel of Christ than ever before. Thus it may be truly said that we have just hope to believe that this dawning of a better and a more glorious day is just coming over the hill tops.

Speaking specially for ourselves we can truly say again that the present year has been good to us. We never before had so many assurances of so many good friends. Our friends have been good to us. God has been good to us. He has always been good to us.

Our hope is that we may all profit by 1923, and that the year 1924 may have in store for us the best in all our experience and that we may so shape our words and our deeds that when these good things come to us we may properly appropriate them and properly enjoy them.

We have all blundered, and blundered perhaps worse in 1923, than ever before. But let us try to forget each other's blunders. Let us try to forget any imagined wrong another may have done us, so that we can face the new year with an open heart and with clean hands. The past is gone, but we are sorry creatures indeed if we do not utilize the lessons gained from the past to steer our little barks, for the days that are before us.

We bid adieu to 1923 with certain feelings of sorrow and regret. We welcome the New Year because it had a right to come and because we hope to so utilize what it brings us that it may of a truth be said of us that we "have kept the faith" and that we may be richer in the higher and better things of life.

We wish that much, yes more, for every citizen of Grenada County and for every reader of The Sentinel. May 1924 pour into the laps of all our people all the sweets of life they can enjoy and may they all have that properly suited to their needs. We welcome 1924. O. F. L.

TO GRENADA COUNTY TAXPAYERS

Friends, tax paying time is here and has been here for several weeks. But comparatively few have paid their taxes thus far. The law adds damages after Dec. 15, but I shall add no damages unless I am compelled to. After February 1, the Sheriff is required to list all who have not paid as delinquent, and besides this there are other penalties. At the present rate, all taxes will not be paid before July. We cannot wait on everybody the last weeks of January at which time our Circuit Court comes on. So let me appeal to everybody to come forward without further delay and let us give you your tax receipt. Do not require us, please, to make this request more urgent.

Miss Louise Perry

The Sentinel realizes that it is well nigh an impossible task to obtain the names of all the holiday visitors to Grenada. But if the readers of the paper and all others who had visitors will telephone Miss Louise Perry, phone 179, or call The Sentinel office, phone 26, and give the names of your visitors or of any of your family who have gone out of town, this paper will greatly appreciate it. This applies to all times and not only to the holiday season.

One of the most enjoyable social affairs of the Christmas holidays was given Friday evening at the Stokes home on College Street when the three charming daughters of the house, Misses Louise, Ruth and Rebecca, entertained with a Bunco party in honor of Miss Lillian Easter, who was soon to be a bride. The house was profusely decorated in holly and Christmas bells. The guest list included about forty of the young people.

IF I KNEW YOU AND YOU KNEW ME.

If I knew you and you knew me,
'Tis seldom we would disagree;
But never having yet clasped hands,
Both often fail to understand
That each intends to do what's right,
And treat each other "honor bright."
How little to complain there'd be
If I knew you and you knew me.
If I knew you and you knew me—
If both of us could clearly see,
And with an inner sight divine
The meaning of your heart and mine
I'm sure that would differ less
And clasp our hands in friendliness;
Our thoughts would pleasantly agree
If I knew you and you knew me.

Inactive Liver

"I have had trouble with an inactive liver," wrote Mrs. S. Nichols, of 4412 Spencer St., Houston, Texas. "When I would get constipated, I would feel a light, dizzy feeling in my head. To get up in the morning with a lightness in the head and a tripping feeling is often a sign that the stomach is out of order. For this I took Thedford's Black-Draught, and without a doubt can say I have never found its equal in any liver medicine. It not only cleans the liver, but leaves you in such a good condition. I have used it a long time, when food does not seem to set well, or the stomach is a little sour."

BACK BAD TODAY

Backache is usually kidney-ache and makes you dull, nervous and tired. Use DOAN'S PILLS for weak kidneys—the remedy recommended by your friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbors.

Mrs. Mary Tribble, 207 Green St., Grenada, says: "I know Doan's Pills are a good medicine as they have been used in our home with beneficial results. I always use them for a disordered condition of my kidneys. My kidneys were weak and caused a lot of annoyance. I had occasional attacks of backache, too. After I began using Doan's Pills relief followed. I gladly recommend Doan's."

The above statement was given June 14, 1918 and on April 12, 1922, Mrs. Tribble added: "It was surprising to find how soon Doan's Pills cured me of kidney trouble several years ago. Since then I have only used them occasionally to flush my kidneys. They have kept my kidneys healthy. I cannot praise Doan's too highly."

ALWAYS CURES

The effects of poisonous germs in the blood is understood today as never before. Many persons do not realize that the blood is the life. They do not know that a poisonous germ can not get in the blood in one part of the body without immediately affecting every other part or organ.

Almost every case of Rheumatism, Indigestion and Kidney trouble is a sympathetic strike by the brain, nerves or stomach, brought on by impurities or impoverishment of the blood.

Leonard's Blood Elixir is the one remedy which cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Blood Poison, Tumors, Ulcers and diseases of the blood. It drives out of the system all poisonous germs and impurities. It gives energy, vigor and health to the sick.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

Value so pronounced that you are justified in looking upon the purchase of a Dodge Brothers Motor Car as the soundest possible investment in transportation.

Not a dollar is added to the purchase price to support a free service policy; nor to cover the costliness of numerous body or chassis types; nor to pay interest on borrowed money; nor to maintain a multiple organization of middlemen.

Dodge Brothers finance themselves. They sell directly through a single organization of dealers to you. They do not believe in charging in advance for service you may never need. They have developed remarkable economies, and a time-seasoned product, by concentrating on standard types.

These facts are reflected, not only in the price of the Car, but in the quality of workmanship and materials that enter into its construction.
